Jim: Good morning, Tokyo. This is your FM radio station 92.4. It is now 8 a.m. and it's time for a public service announcement. We have Ms. Maggie Brown here today to tell us about a charity event called "Fight for the Poor and Hungry."

Good morning, Maggie.

Maggie: Good morning, Jim.

Jim: Could you tell us what this event is about?

Maggie: Yes, this will be held on November 23rd, Thursday during the Thanksgiving holiday, and people in Shinagawa area — and across Tokyo — will skip a meal to help fight poverty and hunger around the world.

Jim: Sounds like a meaningful event. I read some facts about the poverty and hunger situation in the world. Can you believe, two billion people live on less than $2 each day. And more than 850 million people suffer from hunger.

Maggie: Yes, that's right, Jim. The event is about skipping a meal and donating the amount of money you would have used for one meal to our organization. Your participation may help change the world.

Jim: Oh, really, how?

Maggie: Well, you can actually help Sana, a 40-year-old woman in Bangladesh to start a small business. Or Liang, who lives in northern Vietnam, to go to school.

Jim: So you can help worldwide?

Maggie: Yes! Or you can help Pancho, a young fisherman in the Philippines, to find a job to earn money, and even Luisa in Peru to protect the trees and water, as well as Zabaar to get some food for his family.

Jim: I see, and are you organizing this event, Maggie?

Maggie: Yes, the event is organized by World Family Tokyo, an international volunteer organization that works to fight against poverty and hunger in the world. We help the poor people use their knowledge and power to change their lives.

Jim: So come and join us for this important event. Together we can change the world.
