Dave: Welcome to the Study Abroad Fair! I'm Dave Biden. Can I have your name please?

Sandra: Hi, Dave. I'm Sandra Jones. I'm interested in studying for a year in Seoul, Korea.

Dave: OK, Sandra. Is there a university you are interested in?

Sandra: No, but I'm interested in Korean culture and history.

Dave: I see. Do you speak Korean? Or have you studied Korean before?

Sandra: No, I suppose I need to learn some Korean first.

Dave: All right then, there are several universities in Seoul that offer Korean language classes.

Sandra: Great. I can first learn the language.

Dave: Yes. You can study the language and then move on to the university program to study Korean culture and history of your interest.

Sandra: That sounds like what I've been looking for. Can you suggest a university that has a language program for foreign students?

Dave: There's the National Women's University.

Sandra: Is the university located in Seoul?

Dave: Yes. The university offers a four-week program on Korean culture and history in English, which includes Korean language classes, as well.

Sandra: Can you give me more detailed information about the culture and history program?

Dave: Sure, the program includes Korean lifestyle, historical and religious background and art.

Sandra: Would I be able to study with the Korean students after this four-week program?

Dave: Yes. You can continue to learn Korean language and take some regular classes with Korean students in Korean.

Sandra: This is a perfect program for me!
